

Robinson - Tyler

The Greene Baptist Church in Lewiston, Maine was the setting on Dec. 31 for the marriage of Miss Joyce Kendal Tyler and Cpl. William James Robinson. The Rev. Percy L. Vernon, former pastor of the Lewiston United Baptist Church and the Rev. John H. Godfrey, pastor of the Greene Baptist Church, officiated at the 2 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of George K. Tyler of Upper Main Street, Lewiston and the late Mrs. Tyler. Cpl. Robinson is the son of Mrs. James W. Robinson of Walnut Street, Narragansett and the late Mr. Robinson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress of lustrous white brocade with fitted bodice, round neck, short sleeves and a bouffant skirt. A jeweled crown held her shoulder length veil of illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of white and deep pink roses.

Miss Joan Pushard of Lewiston was the bride's attendant. She wore a bell-shaped dress of deep rose with a wedding ring band of brocade holding her face veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of shaded pink roses.

Wallace M. Clark Jr. of Sanford, Me. was best man and ushers were Cpl. Samuel L. James of Orange, Texas, Airman 2nd. class John E. Robinson, brother of the bridegroom, and Michael Carroll, both of Narragansett.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Jo Ann Bartlett of Sanford was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Wyman Goss of Pittsfield, Mass., an aunt of the bride, and the bridegroom's mother received with the bridal couple.

For their wedding trip the couple toured the Maine coast. For traveling the bride chose a pink dress with a green coat.

Mrs. Robinson is a graduate of Lewiston High School and the University of Maine, and has been employed as a medical technologist at Mount Auburn Hospital in Cambridge.

Cpl. Robinson is a graduate of South Kingstown High School and recently completed studies at the Department of Defense Language Institute, at Monterey, Calif. He is at present assigned to the Marine base at Oahu, Hawaii.

Among out-of-town guests were the Misses Carol and Jane Robinson of Narragansett, Wyman Goss and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Tooley of Pittsfield, Mass., Mrs. William Hinman and her daughter Bonita of Lanesboro, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. James Tarbox of Sanford and Miss Karen Gregory of Newton, Mass.
